

let's build
a world
of love

TODD HUSTON

god is love

God is the Spirit of Love.
God is the author of love and gives love its meaning and purpose.
God's love is pure
and unconditional,
and never changes.
All real love
comes from God.

you are love

The background is a soft pink color with a white, textured border. Red, stylized leaves and branches are scattered across the top and right sides, creating a delicate, floral-like pattern.

You are created
as a powerful being of love.
You are made in the image of God giving
you all the qualities
and power of God's love, including abundant
peace, joy, and wholeness.

all is love

All of God's creations are made of love.

Since God is the Source of all life nothing can be created without His love. You will find love within yourself, within others, and in all of God's creations on earth and in the heavens.

love is one

Love is whole. Love cannot be divided or separated. It can only be shared and never taken. You are able to love everyone and everyone is able to love you. To love one is to love all and to love all is to love one. Everyone is part of the oneness of God's love.

only one love

Only one love exists
and that is God's love.

There are many imposters that serve as substitutes for love but they all eventually fail you and the world. You will never need any substitute for God's unfailing love.

love is unconditional

The background is a deep green with a white, torn-paper-like border. At the top, there is a row of stylized trees in various shades of green and yellow. On the left and right sides, there are more stylized trees and bushes. At the bottom, there is a blue lake with several white swans swimming in it.

God's love is for everyone. It is given to you without any conditions regardless of your past or present.

Love does not judge except to say that you always have been, are now, and always will be a pure, innocent, perfect, and beautiful creation of God.

God creates only loving perfection and His creations always remain perfectly loving and worthy of love.

love is eternal

Love lives forever and so do you.
The love that created and lives within you can never be destroyed.
Nothing can kill God or His creations.
Jesus showed that death has no power over God's love and that your spirit will live for eternity. Believe, and you will become aware of your truly infinite and loving nature.

love is power

Love is your only real power and it cannot be threatened by anything or anyone. This power within you is unlimited; it is only your fears and illusions that seem to limit the power of love. Love is the power given to you by God to change a world of poverty, injustice, and hate to a world of peace, unity, and love.

love heals, protects AND creates

Love is the ultimate healer bringing light to the darkness. Love renews the mind, binds and soothes the broken body, softens the hardened heart, and reconnects severed relationships. It protects the lost souls and resurrects you to all your power and glory giving you the ability to create more love in the world.

love is free

Love is freely shared and available for all. Love does not control, manipulate, or bind. It requires no sacrifice and has no expectations. It only demands that you give up all which is not love, such as thoughts of fear and separation. To experience an increasing abundance of love you must give it freely and generously.

love is a choice

You only make one choice in life: to love or not to love. You choose to have a loving thought or not to have a loving thought; to say a loving word or not to say a loving word; to do a loving action or not to do a loving action. Choose love in every moment, in everything you think, say, and do. For whoever loves, knows God and whoever knows God, Loves.

love is law

The law of love is above all other laws.

Love only requires you to love God and love others as you love yourself. God's will is for you to love.
It is a relationship to be shared with all living things. with love you will change yourself and the world.
